mated yesterday guarantees the town's future.

The Southern Pacific Railroad Company has bought blocks 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 in Ramona, comprising 45 acres, the extreme western end of the townsite and close to the depot. The price paid was $500 an acre—making a gentic little total of $225,000. The spur railroad to the winery—about a mile and a half of total track—was also bought; consideration kent private.

It need hardly be said to Angeleños of any considerable residence here that the Southern Pacific isn't in the habit of buying tracts to raise cabbage or citrus fruits. Neither does it wontedly acquire real estate for the purpose of recuperating its lungs thereon. No! The Southern Pacific is going to build a town at Ramona. It is the plan of the company to make this a rival of the famous car-manufacturing town of Pullman, Ill. The information comes straight that the shops of the company will be located at Ramona, and the place built up as a lively manufacturing town, peopled chiefly by the hundreds of railroad employés. It is certain that a branch line will leave the Southern Pacific's main track at Ramona and go somewhere, probably along the route generally outlined above. The knowing ones have been after lands in that vicinity, and probably three-fourths of the lots in Ramona are already sold.

The Shops to be Located ThereA Big Scheme Now Ripe—Fortyfive Acres Purchased.

On the 15th instant The Times published a little sketch of the new town-to-be, Ramona, 6 miles east of this city, on the line of the Southern Pacific and close to the San Gabriel Wine Company's huge establishment. It was then stated that the Southern Pacific had surveyors running lines for a probable branch past The Raymond and Pasadena and up along the foothills north of and parallel to the San Gabriel Valley road, and that still more important railroad developments were impending. The Times this morning presents the details of one of the most important enterprises, probably broached here in years in the line of development.

As has be retefore been said, Ramonathough now innocent of any other buildings than a bird's-nest depot and a dove-cote of a real estate office—has many natural and acquired inducements to grow rapidly into a prosperous town. The Necessity for a Clearing-house Hore.

"Do you see that?" asked one of the city's most successful bankers yesterday, pointing a Times representative's half-eagle eye to a slender young man who was groaning up Court street, bending under the weight of a fat canvas bag, which he carried on his shoulder. The Times man couldn't help seeing. "Well," continued the banker, shoulder. The Times man couldn't help seeing. "Well," continued the banker, "that young fellow has over $10,000 in that sack. He is collector for the — Bank. It is a remarkable thing to see such a spectacle in Los Angeles. I suppose there is not another city on the continent which does so much business as this without a clearing-house. It is simply ridiculous—and dangerous. Why, it is the commonest of occurrences for one of these collectors to carry as high as $50,000 from bank to bank alone. The last trip is frequently made just on the edge of twilight; and some of them are hardly more than boys. It would not be the hardest thing in the world for two or more determined hold-up's, with good horses, to knock down one of those collectors on his last trip, take the plunder and be off-riding into darkness within 30 minutes or so. It will be done que of these days, too. Yes, we need a clearing-house here, and need it bad. Agitate it."

AN IMPORTANT DIAMOND ROB-BERY TRACED DOWN,

And Thief and Sparklers Scooped— Successful Police Haid of a Gam-bling Hell Under the Nadeau—A Policeman's Break.

The details of an important diamond robbery, committed a month ago, are this morning made public for the first time. About the 22d or 23d of December Kittle Davis, a notorious member of the demi-monde, discovered herself poorer by the loss of a fine three-stone diamond bracelet, for which she had but a short time before paid $475 or $500 to S. Nordlinger, a Main-street jeweler. She was not sure at first whether it had been stojen from her house, 17 Sain-sevain street, or whether she had lost ir in a drunken debauch the preceding night at a drunken debauch the preceding night at Bob Eckert's saloon on Court street. It was presently ascertained to be a case of robbery from the house, and she reported the matter to the police. Their efforts to trace the sparklers and catch the nervy robber were ineffectual, and the case was finally turned over to the astute detective Emfi Harris, who began a systematic search. His suspicions were finally directed to J. E. Towne, a barkeeper who, from unpretentious circumstances, suddenly blossomed out with diamonds. Emil shudowed him until he had the case "dead to rights": and Monday morning, assisted by Chief of Police Skinner, arrested "John Doe," whose real name is said to be J. E. Towne. They took him to the police station, and searched him in the Chief's private office. When the Chief stepped out into the main office to get a sack to hold Towne's property, Towne told Harris that he was willing to make a clean breast of the matter; and he directly did so in the presence of the detective and the Chief. He "gave away" all the circumstances, and told how he had stolen the diamonds and how disposed of them. Having put Towne, safely behind the bars, Detective Harris and Chief Skinner proceeded to follow the clew he had given as to the whereabouts of the diamonds. One had been found on Towne; the other two were recovered from two different pawnbroking establishments. Even the discarded gold setting, banged up almost beyond recognition, was recovered. The three diamonds were positively identified at Nordlinger's as the ones which had been sold to the Davis woman from that establishment.

Towne comes up before Justice Austin at 3 p.m. today to answer for his serious crime.

THE TIGER'S LAIR.

Eighteen Gamblers Captured Under the Nadeau Hotel.

Officers Smith and Lynch, who have been specially detailed for detective work, have been doing some effective work of late. Learning that a faro game had been in prog-ress in the cellar under the Nadeau Hotel ress in the ceins under the Audeau Alore, for a couple of weeks past, they laid their plans, and yesterday, in company with Offi-cer Auble, made a raid, capturing 18 persons cer Aubie, made a raid, capturing is persons in the act of gambling and about half a bushel of ivory chips.

The following are the names of those captured: Abe Jones (dealer), George Smith, E. C. Robinson, C. E. Cooper, J. J. James, B. D. Wilkes, P. Booth, W. Hutchinson, G. McCloud, O. S. Stephens, A. B. Cole, B. F. Yates, W. Brackett, Jerry Johnson and three Does and Roes.

The tariff for the dealer was fixed at $50, and $20 for each of the others, which sums were promptly paid. It is evident that something beyond a moderate fine will be necessary, if it is desired to shut up the faro games, as the proprietor of a game that is doing a good business could easily afford to pay fines to the amount of $500 every week, if necessary.

A Policeman's Needless Shooting on Spring Street.

The unjustifiable readiness of some few officers to use the weapons which the law allows them to carry is frequently ob-trusive. Last night about 10:30 Officer Botello found a man committing a usual nuisance on Spring street, which was undisturbed by passers. He spoke to the man, who made some flippant reply, not knowing him by the arm and gave him a severe jerk, him by the arm and gave him a severe jerk, saying that he'd pull him in. This was too much for the American citizen, and he gave the "previous" officer an artistic blow in the eye, which still lingers. Botello went for his gun, as usual, whereupon the man ran. Botello fired two shots after him, and pursued him, until a pile of bricks in a dark place, tripped the runner, and Botello overtook him. He escorted him to the station and booked him on the certainly remarkable charge of indecent exposure, for which he put up $50 ball. Shooting after the most trivial offenders with a .44 caliber is dangerous sport in Los Angeles.

CHEAP GAS.

The New Gas Company Lets 1ts Pipe Contract.

Contract.

The Consumers' Gas, Light, Heat and Power Company, the new gas company which was granted a franchise by the Council a few months ago, and of whose progress The Times has given frequent notice, yesterday let the contract for all its pipe—no less a matter than 75 car-loads. It is pleasant to know that a Los Angeles firm "got away" with the contract in spite of numerous and noted outside bidders. The contract goes to the Harper & Reynolds Company, and the pipe is to be made at once. It is in all sizes, the mains being four times the present capacity. The new company expects to be furnishing its cheap light and fuel in a very few months.

The Santa Fe Still Marching Pro gressively Ahead - The Southern Pacific Running Excursions and Specials-Briefs and Persons

"It is rather peculiar," said a prom railroader yesterday to a Times truth-seeker, "to see what is being done by the two great rival lines in the matter of passenger business. It isn't very long ago that the only 'market,' so to speak, for this class of goods was in the East. The Santa Fé system went to work one leves cooks a state of the cooks. to work on a large scale, and with intelli gent methods, to bring passengers from the East to Southern California. Now it is gent methods, to bring passengers from the East to Southern California. Now it is keeping up the work with growing vigor. The Southern Pacific has adopted a curious policy, however. Instead of going East to hunt in passengers, it comes down here to tole to the northern part of the State the people whom the Santa Fe has brought here. Funny scheme, et? It is indeed, but you see it working every day. I believe The Times was the only newspaper anywhere that 'tumbled to the racket' of the 'Northern Citrus Belt's' true inwardness—namely, that it is a Southern Pacific has never comprehended the building of 'feeder' lines. It has run entirely to trunk lines. Now, after supposing all these years that it had a lien on this southern country it suddenly awakes to find that the Santa Fe has quietly walked up and gobbled up nearly all the big opportunities. The Southern Pacific cannot give up this rich field and will do all it can here, but its principal efforts will be in behalf of the N. C. B., as "Times calls it. You may be sure that the not-bern boom is entirely a Southern Pacific production."

SANTA FE EXCURSIONS.

The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé has been doing a big work with its regular semi-monthly excursions from Kansas. City to California. been doing a big work with its regular semimonthly excursions from Kansas. City to California. November 18th it sent out 9
Pullmans and 1 coach loaded with tourists; December 9th, 19 Pullmans and 3 coaches; December 30th, 19 Pullmans and 3 coaches; Italian of oays, 60 Pullmans and 10 coaches, all full of tourists for this section. Finding an immense demand for a ticket including all our points, the Santa Fé will begin caclustocly Southern California excursions. The first leaves Kansas City today at 3:25 p.m., stopping at Las Vegas S sturday, Santa Fé Sunday and reaching this city February 1st at 9 p.m.

The round-trip ticket (which is only $60) entimes the passenger to visit San Bernardino, Colton, Los Angeles, Pasadera, The Raymond, Lamanda Park, Riverside, San Diego, National City and Coronado Beach, all withbut extra charge. It will be seen that the Santa Fé's new purchase, the Los Angeles and San Gabriel United iline, is included in this itinerary.
The excursion is perhaps the most tempting ever offered the vast numbers in the East who wish to see Southern California thoroughly at a cheap rate. The excursionists will be carried on Pullman cars, and there will doubtless be an immense crowd of them.

GETTING POINTERS.

Capt. Ed. F. Sisson, southern passenger agent of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé, with headquarters in Chattanooga, Tean., is in the city. The Captain has been with the Santa Fé route a long time and is a trusted officer. He has been kept busy answering questions about Southern California-for the Tennessevans are falling into line, too, with their eyes on the land of promise and now has come to explore this section thoroughly, that he may be able to talk back to querists from his own observation. He has already circumnavigated the Northern Citrus Belt, and thinks it wouldn't make a patch on the pantaloons of Southern California. He goes to San Diego today, and will be in Riverside and San Diego Saturday and Monday.

CHEAP FREIGHT RATES.

One of the best-posted men in the city—who knows more about what is going on in railroad circles than he could tell on in railroad circles than he could tell in a week or would tell in a year—said to a Times representative yesterday: "The fact is that this city is now getting cheaper rates on freight to and from the East than San Francisco itself is. The thing is kept quiet, and it isn't an open rate; but competition is close, and our people are getting a tangible benefit."

Grading on the McLaughlin dummy line to the projected Los Angeles University, is being pushed very rapidly. Every day sees notable progress.

An account of the Southern Pacific's latest scheme, the establishment of a big car manufacturing town 6 miles from this city, will be found in another column.

The Southern Pacific will run a half-rate excursion to the San Joaquin Valley and San José, February 3d. Tickets will be good 12 days, and will enable the tourist to see San José's citrus fair.

Tomorrow the Southern Pacific will start a special orange train of 10 cars or more to Eastern points. In case there are not cars enough loaded to make a special train, the fruit-cars will be attached to a passenger train.

The surveyors for the San Bernardino Valley Railroad are at work on the other side of the river, going in the direction of Old San Bernardino. They will soon have everything in readiness for the graders.—[San Bernardino Index.

D. H. Dotterer, the superintendent of motive power and machinery of the entire system of the Atlantic and Pacific road, was in the city last night. He has been taking a look at the road in general and examining the rolling stock. He was born to his work, and knows it from beginning to end. He left for Albuquerque this morning.

The rivalry of the Atchison road has put some energy into the Southern Pacific, and the singular spectacle is presented of the two companies building parallel roads from Santa Ana to San Diego. THE LAWS OF HEALTH.

Lecture by Mrs. Dr. French on Dyspepsia and Kindred Maladies.

Mrs. Dr. French, who is well known throughout the United States as a speaker on hygienic matters, delivered a lecture yesterday afternoon to a small audience at Opera Hall on the subject of "Dyspepsia."

The speaker commenced by saving that The speaker commenced by saying that she was sorry to see so small an andience present. Her subject for today would be the stomach, liver and spleen, their diseases and cure. This was a very big programme for one day, and she would only be able to give an outline of the subject. The lecturer then continued:

"Few people know much about the stemach, its size, position, or the duties which it has to fulfill. As a consequence, we are so much afflicted with dyspepsia, indigestion and the hundred other names by which the maladies arising from imperfect digestica are known. In order to arrive at an idea of the cause of dyspepsia, we shall have to go into the order in which food is taken into the system and disposed of."

The speaker then thoroughly described the process of the absorption of food from the time it is taken into the mouth until it is perfectly diffested.

"One frequent cause of indigestion is the swallowing of food with fluids, so that the food does not become perfectly mixed with the gastric juice. Not a drop of any fluid should be taken into the mouth at any time during the esting process. Alsohol is of a still more damaging character. So drop of food can possibly digest in the stomach as long as there is a drop of alcehol present. More time should be thoroughly masticated. Most people est too much. In regard to what class of food is the best, everything fit for food, not spoiled or fermented, is good, if eaten rationally and in moderation. Before digestion can start, all fluid in the stomach must be forced out. Nothing ern make natural und strong blood but thorough digestion. When mastication is but pertially performed, or too much food is taken at a time, decomposition sets in, the first sign of which is gas in the stomach. A meal should consist of one kind of food. As one sert of food takes much longer than another to cook; so is it in the case of digestion. In regard to pork, the hog is the only animal whose stomach is formed in a similar manner to that of man, it is soon to a start than I would a human being. Fresh pork should never be eaten. After it is smoled and caresi a chemical, each of the most pernicions drinks that each be thoroughly and eat simple f

The lecturer then proceeded with some interesting remarks regarding the training of children, houskeeping, the education of girls and hygenic dress, followed by a description of the benefits of electricity, and invited all who were afflicted with any malady to come and test a battery which the lecturer had with her, an invitation which was accepted by several members of the audience.

A STRANGE CASE.

A Wealthy Oil Man's Craze for Opiates.

Yesterday's Times contained an account of the row raised by James McDonald in a room at 291/4 South Spring street, and the fury with which he fought the officers who arrested him. McDonald's case is a peculiar one, and a sad commentary on human folly. The man is young and wealthy. It is said by those in a position to know, that he is "worth" half a million. He was extensively by those in a position to know, that he is "worth" half a million. He was extensively engaged in the oil business in Bradford, Tarport and other Pennsylvania oil towns, and owned many wells. His home was in Pittsburgh, and he says he first came to the coast just a year ago. He also says that he had contracted the habit of using hypodermic injections of morphine and cocaine before leaving Pennsylvania, and was under treatment in Santa Barbara for the habit before he came here. He sports a $400 watch and expensive diamonds, and has plenty of ready coin. He was brought up before Mayor Workman yesterday and fined $50 for his outrageous conduct the night before. That Officers Jackson, Deckman and Lemon refrained from clubbing the herculean madman during his most savage treatment of them, speaks well for their forbearance. No attempt was made to arrest the woman in the case—Mrs. Johnson, formerly of the Johnson Mansion, who was recently divorced from her husband, and who is a member of the notorious Abbott family. When Jackson attempted to arrest McDonald she fought the officer like a fiend, choking him, clawing him and so harassing him as to put him at the mercy of the raging McDonald. Poor Jackson was a dilapldated looking specimen when reinforcements arrived. The officers did not arrest Mrs. Johnson, supposing her to be McDonald's wife and feeling content to let her conduct pass.

The Mohawk Colony.

A representative of the new Mohawk Valley Colony, Ariz, passed through Los Angeles on his way to San Francisco, where he will endeavor to make more or less reasonable freight rates with the company for the colony, which expects to discount the Northern, Central s and Southern Citrus Belts in the successful raising of everything semi-tropical, from tarantulas to bananas.

A Burglar Acquitted.

The Model New Quaker Colony New Orange.

Rev. J. W. Brier, the venerable survivor of the Death Valley hornor of '49—with whom Tran: Trans has already printed a graphic interview detailing; his awful expesearchy of tumper, due to the long blockade, Modena would already be a considerable little city. The location of the town is, admirable, the climate lovely, the land rich, and the people—what stock is more respected, the nation through, than the Quakers'—are industrious, sober and intelligent. They have taken the fullest precautions against the sale of liquor in the town, and intend to have a model community. A plain but rosany church, 40x00, is being erected, and it is proposed to build a narrow-gauge rallroad to the coast. The people have largely laid aside the peculiar dress and the quaint but sweet "thee" and and "thou," though a few of the older ones cling to these time-honored traditions.

Mr. Brier liked the people of Modena and they liked him. He preached eight times there and organized a Home Protection League with 70 members. The people have presented king with an eligible lot, on the proviso that he make his home among them, and he has accepted the proposition. The Quaker colony will be heard from.

As a result of the disagreement between the Atlantic and Pacific and Southern Pacific Company, with regard to what should constitute the passenger rates from this city to eastern points, there are now two rate-sheets in the field. A new passenger tariff, going into effect yesterday, has been received by all the local agents. It is issued by the Atlantic and Pacific, and comes from the general office of that line in Albuquerque. The rates to the principal eastern points have not been changed, but there are many changes in rates to what are known as local eastern points. The cuts are small, however, the greatest, being $4.70. It was expected that the rate-sheet squabble between the two lines would bring forth more fruit in the way of reductions, but it seems that on the part of the Atlantic and Pacific there was no intention of making any great changes while the inter-State commerce cloud hung over the railroad horizon.

The Tucson Star's special from Huachuca, Ariz., under date of January 24th says:

About dark on Saturday afternoon two Indians, or half-breed Mexicans, made their appearance at Crow's ranch, Mescal springs, in the Whetstone Mountains. They were on horseback, one being armed with a Winchester rifle and the other with a self-cocking pistol. As they seemed to be suffering from the cold Crow asked them into his cabin to get warm. James Riley and Edward Land were there at the cabin about ten minutes Riley started for the corral to feed their horses. He was followed by one of the Indians. They had been gone but a few minutes when the Indian remaining in the cabin fired at Crow with the revolver, shooting him in the left arm. He then shot at Land without effect. Crow, though bleeding from his wound, grappled with the Indian and both fell out of the door.

At this moment the other/Indian with the Winchester returned, followed by diangle of sacks of cracked wheat, a couple of sacks of cracked

At this moment the other/Indian with the Winchester returned, followed by Riley. A general firing ensued resulting in the death of one of the Indians. The other escaped under the cover of the darkness, but was thought to be wounded. Mr. Crow was immediately taken to Land & Hays's ranch. His wound, though not serious, is very painful. Word was immediately sent to the commanding officer at Fort Huachuca, and a detachment of Troop B, Fourth Cavalry, under charge of Lieutenants Walsh and Nalan left early Sunday morning to scout the Whetstone range for the missing Indian.

Three additional masts for the electric light company will be here tomorrow and they will be put up as soon as possible. The company are going to make another attempt to light up Third street this evening.

It was the intention of the electric light men to have set things a-going last night, but for some reason the light remained under the cover of darkness.

Mr. Payne, of the City Street Railway, informs the Index that he will have five cars more of rails here this evening, and that the work on Third street will be pushed forward with renewed vigor. It will not be very long until the cars will be running.

Another man was stopped in the vicinity of the electric light mast on Third street, near G, last night. Two fellows came up to him and asked for some matches, but instead, the citizen gave one of them the butt of his cane over the head. The other rascal ran away as the citizen raised his stick, but the other stopped long enough to get the lick and then followed his partner. This is the way-to supply these brutes with matches and midnight information, and if it was resorted to by all of our people when approached at an unusual hour or in a dark place, the tramps and robbers would seek another field to work in.

A move is now on foot for the laying A Snap Shot.

[San Diegan, Jan. 24.]

A very serious accident occurred yesterday near the Monument. It appears that while a gentleman named Richardson was driving in a buggy with his wife, he saw a flock of qualis and got out to have a shot at them. In some way unexplained the hammer of the gun caught and the charge exploded, taking effect in Mr. Richardson's right

Riverside to Arlington.

It is also on the programme to lay out a residence town at the head of Magnolia avenue on the Tibbetts tract and tracts adjacent thereto, and to eventually build a large hotel in connection therewith.

The first move made in this direction was taken by the land company, at a meeting held yesterday, at which they granted the right of way across their i0-acre lot in the Tibbetts tract, south of the lower canal.

There appears to be capital and energy behind this scheme, which is a very practical one, and we shall expect to see it move rapidly until something ergy behind this scheme, which is a very practical one, and we shall expect to see it move rapidly until something is accomplished. Land on this streetcar line will advance rapidly in value, and the way to make the move a success, is for all interested parties to take hold and give a lift.

Poor Economy.

A TIMES representative who passed the courthouse hill yesterday, was struck by an apparent lack of calculation. The hill is persent lack of calculation. In this is being rapidly graded down, and the dirt is being hauled away. The question suggests tself, "whence will the dirt come to fill the big hole at the northeast corner, where the bid church now stands? Will the county buy dirt and haul it in?"

The Bogie Club.

The young gentlemen of Lamanda Park have formed a club known as the "Bogie Club." It was organized Monday night, and Citio. It was organized Monday high, also has about 25 members. Object, mutual en-joyment. The following officers were elected: President, William Tick; treas-urer, H. L. Taliaferro; master, Tom Maher: vice-master, Joe Patten; janitor, Jim Mack.

Held to Answer.

The trial of Charles Raskin, the French editor, on a charge of assault to murder, eccupied Justice Taney's court during the whole of yesterday. M. Raskin was held for trial on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, with bail fixed at $500, which was produced.

THE gambling "racket" of the Express is singularly transparent.

THE seven little Indians who escaped from Capt. Lawton have been leaving a bloody trail in Mexico.

THE Fifth Congressional district of California is also to have a contest. Frank J. Sullivan will contest the seat of Charles N. Felton.

Another outrage on an American citizen by a Mexican official is re-ported from El Paso. The Associated Press correspondent at that place understands his business.

CHIEF OF POLICE SKINNER is getting to the collars of the gambling gentry in good shape. More white gamblers have been arrested in the last three weeks than in the preceding year. Let the good work go on.

THE San Bernardino Times, which is old enough to know better, is disposed to find fault because its county has sometimes been alluded to in this paper as "Berdoon." It even hints that this is an indication of unfriend-"Berdoon" is a good-natured nickname which originated in San Bernardino itself, and is some times a convenient substitute in headlines for the awkwardly lengthy origiand liberal policy it is hardly needful to remark that THE TIMES has paid, and is paying, more attention to San Bernardino county and its development than all the other papers in this city put together.

In another column will be found an interesting report of a meeting of the local Topolobampo Club, at which it was resolved to endeavor to found a colony on a similar plan in this State. THE TIMES, in common with the Sar co and New York papers, has devoted considerable space to this movement, which marks a new era in the progress of the coöperative system as applied to the settlement of land—a plan which has been ably advocated for the past decade by Dr. Vollmar, of San Francisco, and other deep thinkers. In a few days our esteemed contemporaries will doubtless follow, as they usually do, in the wake of THE TIMES and discover that this colonization system is worthy of some space in their

THE police department is showing its alertness by causing the arrest of a number of women of bad repute, who are allowed to depart after arrest on depositing a cash bail of $10 each. The next morning, when their cases are called, the women are not there and their bail is declared forfeited. Every one is then supposed to join in congrat ulating the city upon being $200 or $300 in pocket, justice is mollified and the game goes on as before. Now, is it not time that this ancient chestnut was dispensed with? If these women are wailty of an infringement of the law. they should be brought to trial, if the suppression of an evil is really aimed The forfeiture of a flimsy amount of bail is laughed at by the culprits, and the moral effect of the whole business is bad. The City Attorney, disposed people were driven to arms stice is not repeated.

The Boom and Its Causes

Almost the universal exch strangers coming to Los Angeles is: "The city is much larger than I exected to find it, and its bus uses are finer than I anticipated.' This busy, growing city is an astonishment to the newcomer, and its pushing activity is one of its strong attractions One glimpse at its busy streets, at its thronged shops; its crowded real-estate offices; its rapidly multiplying business houses, is sufficient to attest the fact of its prosperity. Growth is written upon the face of everything. The stranger is not long in discovering that the busi-ness pulse is a healthy one; it does not fluctuate, and is never feeble. The general tone of the community, too, is cheerful. Its cheerfulness is based upon an undoubted faith in the future of Southern California, and of Los Angeles in particular. That faith is not in its nature, nor visionary in its hopes. It is based upon certainty. No country with the soil and climate that we possess with such inexhaustible resources and conditions for growth, is ever going to fail in its rapid development when once its favorable conditions are understood.

The stranger is quick to see the exceptional advantages of this section. We need resort to no argument to impress him with the superiority of our claims, for they are sufficiently apparent. We do not need to decry other sections of this great State to induce him to remain with us and to invest his capital in our midst. He sees us as we are, and he is not slow to conclude that wherever he may go he will find no conditions more satisfactory than he observes existing here. He wants nothing better, so he has no inclination to look farther. He sees fine orchards and vineyards, prosperous farms, vast harvest fields, manufacturing enterprises, mineral wealth, untold resources, active business life in every field of enterprise, commercial in portance, railroads running in all directions for transportation, fersoil, sufficient tile water supplies, advanced horticultural inter ests; extended agriculture; schools churches, colleges and universities hospitals and other benevolent institutions; he finds an equable climate free from the extremes of heat and cold, and a vast influx of population and of capital, and he is content to plant here his vine and fig tree, to build his home and bring up his children. Other portions of the State, jealous of the growth and prosperity of Los Angeles, may seek to disparage her advantages, but he does not heed them. He says: "It "It is impossible to disprove what the eye has seen. I ask nothing better than to cast in my lot here." And so the stranger stays with us, and guickly dentifies himself with our progress. He takes delight in making a home where homes can be made so quickly. He is not afraid to invest largely where every-body is confident, and his faith and his efforts, added to our own, hasten and strengthen our rapid upbuilding. And this is why Los Angeles grews She has the forces of growth within herself, and she has also a wonderful power of attrition. There is nothing to repel, but everything to attract. Every thing that is essential for the upbuild ing of a great metropolis she possesse and her metropolitan character will soon be an undisputed fact.

How California Was Filibustered.

The volume of H. H. Bancroft's histor which treats of the conquest of California from Mexico throws a new and valuable light on this subject. It strips from a pathfinder or two some of the credit that has been popularly given them, and shows the intripues by which and most effective weapons, "whether gatour government sought to acquire this territory.

When the Administration decided to declare war with Mexico it determined that the war should be one of conques Larkin was appointed confidential agent at Monterey in 1846, with intructions to intrigue with leading Californians so as to gain their friendship, and to lead them to revolt from and declare California an independent republic. He was to have them understand that when they had once cut loose from Mexico, they would be gladly welcomed into the United States. It was the Texas plan, and the Administration hoped to secure the coveted province, apparently by the action of the inhabitants themselves. This plan developed admirably. Larkin found Vallejo and other leading Califormians disposed to listen to his whisperings, and he reported that California would soon voluntarily becompossession of the Union.

Before Larkin's plans had time to fully mature, however, war was declared with Mexico and Commodore Sloat, who had been lingering in Mexican ports waiting for definite information of the declaration of hostilities received the news he was waiting for and finally mustered courage enough to sail to Monterey. His coming of course superseded Larkin's work, and when dilatory commander at length raised the stars and stripes at Monte-rey on the 7th of July, 1846, California vas lost to Mexico. Had no other influences been at work the conques would probably have been a bloodless one. The leading inhabitants had long been jealous of the distant centra power seated in the Mexican capital. and Larkin had made them ready to become American citizens

The candid presentation of the facts by the historian shows conclusively that the taking of Sonoma and the Pathfinder's invasion had no authority from our government, and it shows that events did not facilitate the acquisition, but rather hindered it, and made a people hostile who had very friendly.

COMMENTING on the proposition to restore Gen. Stoneman to the retired list, with the rank and pay of a colonel, the San Francisco Chronicle says:

San Francisco Chronicle says:

We must say that we are unable to see any good or sufficient reason for replacing Gen. Stoneman in a position which he voluntarily abandoned, not to serve the United States in any other capacity, but to take up the office of Governor of California at a larger salary than his retired rank gave him. No pressure, as we remember it, was brought to bear upon Gen. Stoneman to induce him to accept the position of Governor of this State, nor was there even a tacit understanding that an effort should be made to replace him in his military rank at the expiration of his term of office. On the contrary, his resignation was dictated by political foresight and sagacity, his party managers knowing that his retention of his army rank and pay would be used against him in his political campaign, and it is not right that he, should now be rewarded for his selfishness, as if it were an act of unparalleled generosity or elevated patriotism.

A SACRAMENTO dispatch to THE TIMES announces that the Senate Judiciary Commission had reported White's bill to provide two additional judges for the Superior Court in Los Angeles, with an amendment, giving the county but one more judge.

THE Woman's Christian Temper ance Union of Virginia has officially thanked Mrs. Cleveland for abstaining from alcoholic beverages. No mention is, however, made of Grover.

FAUST AND MARGUERITE.-There wa change in the programme last night, aused by the departure of Miss Celia Alsa change in the programme last night, caused by the departure of Miss Celia Alsberg, who, it was announced, had been summoned to San Francisco by the news of her mother's death. In the enforced absence of the leading lady the arduous part of "Marguerite" was assumed, on 12 hours' notice, by Miss Rossbel Morrison, a young lady of about 17, the daughter of Mr. Lewis Morrison. Under the circumstances, her rendition deserves indulgent criticism, if such were needed; but it is only fair to say that the young lady was twice complimented by a call before the curtain, and that her acting gave general satisfaction. In emotional passages she is decidly superior to Miss Alsberg, and showed great delicacy and refinement in her assumption of the character.

The part of "Lisa," formerly played by Miss Morrison, was taken by Miss Nonna Ferner, of this city. It is a small character, but was very prettily sustained.

The scenic effects are now working in fine shape, and elicit loud applause.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Atlanta Constitution (Dem.) declares the internal revenue laws to be "more obnoxious than those of Russia." The Constitution is gifted in hyperbole.

It is evident that the conference of Democratic members of the House is determined to perfect a bill for the reduction of the revenue. The first regular convention of the United Labor party in New York promises to be a serial as well as a serious affair. It is to be held from evening to evening until its work is accomplished. cean Steamers Unable to Obtain Coal or Tran for Freight-The Men Ordered to Stop Work by the Knights of Labor-The Strike Spreading.

By Telegraph to The Times.

New York, Jan. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] The longshoremen are considering the question of having a general strike all along the docks and piers of the city. An order was issued yesterday to all coal shovelers to refuse to handle "scab" coal. The result is that no coal is being landed in the city. The stoppage will affect all the steamship lines, which are dependent on them for ordinary supplies. The union of the coal shovelers have as members all men who unload canal-boats or barges of coal. The longshoremen handle coal for the steamship lines the same as regular merchandise. The two unions are affiliating. The longshoremen will not handle coal for any steamship line taking freight from the Old Dominion line. Three ships of the Wilson line are tied up, because the company accepted Old Dominion freight. Trouble is expected at the Cunard pier. The Gallia arrived this morning and the men were to begin unloading at 1 o'clock. The men were ordered not to begin work because Old Dominion freight was received. The Devonia of the Anchor line is in the same fix. Both unions are hopeful of success. The officers of the Old Dominion line say that they have all the men they need. Over 100 men were unloading the steamer Algiers today.

Police Superintendent Murray issued an order today calling all the reserves out. He considers the situation threatening, and says that he will not be caught napping. By this order 1200 men can be concentrated at any point in the city at an heur's notice.

In Brooklyn no trouble has yet occurred. At Lambert's stores police protection was demanded. The men declared they would refuse to handle Anchor line freight as it came from the Old Dominion line. The police reserves were all called out. By Telegraph to The Times.

RDERS FROM THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR NEW YORK, Jan. 26 .- The struggle of the striking 'longshoremen, that has to a certain extent become merged into that of the coal handlers, was transferred to a field of wider proportions today when it became known that the Knights of Labor had decided that no coal of any sort should be handled in the port of New York by union men, on the ground that all put in the harbor now has been put aboard barges by non-union men. Thus the transferring of coal to transatiantic and coastwise steamships cannot be undertaken by any union man, and the supply of coal to consumers in this city, Brooklyn and other points around New York Harbor can not be replemished by union men. The effect of the carrying out of the order of the Knights, not to load coal became immediately apparent all along the river fronts. All ocean and coastwise steamship lines with few exceptions suddenly found themselves deserted by union 'longshoremen whenever there was coal to be transferred on the vessels. The order not to handle coal also extends to union men outside of the port of New York. Even as far as New Orleans it is said that the union 'longshoremen and others are under an obligation not to load vessels with coal. With the assistance of the coalhandlers the 'longshoremen, it is stated, could easily force the transatiantic and coastwise steamship lines to refuse to handle Old Dominion freight. The question of ordering a general strike of 'longshoremen is being considered, so it is said, by the executive board of the Ocean Association of the 'Longshoremen's Union, and it is thought to be among the possibilities that not less than 20,000 men will be idle tomorrow. striking 'longshoremen, that has to a certai extent become merged into that of the coa

THE STRIKE STEADILY SPREADING NEW YORK, Jan. 26.-At 1 p.m. all the ongshoremen working by the hour, em-loyed by the National and Cunard Steamployed by the National and Cunard Steamship Companies went on a strike. They had been at work up to 12 o'clock, and on going away for dinner gave no intimation to their superintendents that they did not intend to return to work. At 1 o'clock the 'longshoremen employed by the National line struck because the company had employed Italians to work in the grain elevator. The grain had been shipped, it was said, by non-union men. The trouble on the Cunard dock was that the superintendent said, by non-union men. The trouble on the Cunard dock was that the superintendent had taken some of the old-time hands and given them steady employment at the rate of $16 per week. The men who worked by the hour said that the new weekly men would be eventually compelled to unload barges, or at least an attempt would be made to have them do so. The longshoremen, who work for the Providence line, have demanded 30 cents an hour. They have been getting 25 cents. New men were taken on, and several policemen were sent to see that they were not molested. The line employs about 100 time men and 40 weekly hands, who get $2 per day. An effort will be made to get the weekly men out on a 'strike also. SEVENTEEN THOUSAND MEN TO STOP WORK. SEVENTEEN THOUSAND MEN TO STOP WORK MEW YORK, Jan. 26.—The executive committee of District Assembly 49. Knights of Labor, at their meeting today, decided to advise all men employed in any way in the steamships or about them, in stowing or placing their cargoes or carting or transferring or supplying coal, to stop work for three days. As many as can are requested to be present at a meeting in Cooper Union tomorrow night which has been gotten up by the leaders of District Assembly 49 to protest against the coal managers who, they say, are all banded in an effort to raise the price of coal to consumers: As soon as the executive committee's action became known, meetings were held by the local assemblies, in which are the bag-sewers, the coal-handlers. grain-handlers, calkers, tinsmiths, ship-carpenters, pump-riggers, tugboat and deckhands and engineers, long-shoremen and railroad brakemen; and it was decided to act upon the advice of Assembly 49. The statistician of District Assembly 49 says that there are upward of 23,000 men in all of these local assemblies, but they are not all employed on the North River front. His computation is that about 17,000 men will stop work. Probably 800 or 1000 men hould remain at their homes until evening, when as many as feel disposed may attend the meeting in Cooper Union. The statistician added that the request of the executive committee would be rigidly obeyed. The men had been counseled, and would surely refrain from the use of violence. ommittee of District Assembly 49. Knight

Knights of Labor Object to the Inter-State Commerce Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] A letter, of which the following is a copy, was today sent to President Cleveland by the National Legislativ Committee of the Knights of Labor:

Committee of the Knights of Labor:

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26, 1887.

Mr. President: This committee, representing the largest body of organized workers in the nation, numbering as they do, with their dependents, over 5,000,000, or nearly one-tenth of the whole people, and in the interest of three-fourths of those of the United States, desire to call your attention to Senate bill No. 1582 and known as a bill to regulate Inter-State Commerce. First, we desire to say that on one side of the great question involved in this bill to regulate Inter-State Commerce. First, we desire to say that on one side of the great question involved in this bill is a large body of producers and consumers, who are simple in their habits of life and their methods of doing business, and poor in purse, and from their habits and methods of living they desire to have laws made simple and plain so that they may be able to present their claims before the courts of the land without having to contend with legal technicalities and discriminations arising out of others' ability to pay for ablest legal talent in the land. In this respect the present bill is the acume of legal subterfuge. Therefore, we desire to call your attention to this and a few other objectionable features of the bill. We regard the following objections as fundamental: First, the commission clause; second, the arbitrary power conferred upon the commission; third, the exclusive jurisdiction given to the Federal courts to hear and determine causes arising under the act; fourth, the acknowledged uncertainty as to the meaning of nearly all of the provisions of the measure. In behalf of our constituents, we respectfully request you to veto the bill. We remain yours respectfully, (Signed) RALPH BEAUMONT.

WANTS AN ACCOUNTING.

A Suit Involving the Pico Petroleum Springs.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] Juan M. Lugo has sued the California Star Oil Works for an accounting. He alleges that Pio Pico and R. S. Baker located the Pico oil springs in 1865, in Los Angeles county; that in 1877 Pico conveyed his interest in trust to Baker. Baker and the California Star Oil Company, plaintiff. the California Star Oil Company, plaintfff says, obtained 1200 barrels of petroleum per month, from April 12, 1876, to April 12, 1879, month, from April 12, 1876, to April 12, 1870, from the springs. One-seventh of this belonged to plaintiff, as purchaser of Pico's interest. Baker, plaintiff alleges, fraudulently sold his and plaintiff's interest to defendant for $5. This is charged to be a subterfuge, and that in reality Baker and his associates received $150,000 and a number of shares of the corporation from the company for the transartion. Baker transferred the latter to his wife and the company. Plaintiff, therefore demands a full accounting, so that he may find out the amount owed him by the company.

The Supreme Court Decides a San Diego Murder Case.

San Francisco, Jan. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] The Supreme Court has affirmed the judgment of the Superior Court of San Bernardino county, in the case of The People vs. Bush. The defendant appealed from a judgment convicting him of murder in the second degree, and from an order refusing him a new trial. The case had been previously tried in San Diego county, and defendant convicted of murder in the first degree, but on appeal the Supreme Court reversed the judgment and ordered a new trial, which took place, on a change of venue, in San Bernardino county. In ruling on the appeal, the court finds that the court of the latter county had jurisdiction. The court also decides that there were no prejudicial errors throughout the whole case, and for these reasons affirms the judgment and order.

The Conductor was Convinced.

[Boston Record.]

Down between Summer and Franklin streets, an elderly woman, evidently from the rural regions, stood just beside the car track and vociferated her wish of riding on that car. The conductor's thoughts were evidently in the clouds, and would only return from their aerial flight at the next street crossing, yet, nothing daunted, she grasped the rail of the rear platform and ran along by the side of the car, when the following sharp dialogue ensued:

"Where do you want to go, my good woman?"

"Why, in here, of course, you fool. I ain't runnin' along here in the snow for fun. I ain't so young and active as I wuz."

The argument was irresistible in its logic and he stopped the car in sheer self-defense.

A curious story comes from West Virginia.
For ten years Mrs. Martin of Ritchie county has been a bed-ridden, speechless cripple. She anused herself by making a crazy quilt out of pieces of fabries sent her by friends. The other day she received a patch from President Cleveland, and her joy and astonishment were so great that she suddenly jumped out of bed and knocked a pistol upon the floor. The bullet entered her paralyzed leg, restored it to its normal condition and at the same time set free her long silent tongue.

The charter is prepared for cities having over 30,000 and less than 100,000 population, and elections for city officers are provided for on the second Monday in April of every even-num bered year. The executive officers are a Mayor, at $2500 per year; Treasurer, Auditor, Clerk of Council and Police Judge, at $2400 each; City Attorney, at $3000 per year; seven Councilmen, elected by wards, at $2400 each, and seven Fire and Police Commissioners. 90 cars of oranges will be shipped from our orchards this season. Not had for a 10-year-old settlement.

Messrs. Pomeroy, Stimson, Lattin, Ogelvie, Stuart, Adams and others came out from Los Angeles yesterday to attend meetings of the Improvement Company and Horse Railway, in which they are interested as stockholders.

The train men are a unit in agreeing that more passengers get off and on at Alhambra than at any other station between Los Angeles and Pomona. With our five daily trains each way, our little Kal-dhamrah depot presents a lively appearance. A few weeks since our citizens were pleased to entertain Mr. Towne and Col. Crocker, of the Southern Pacific, by a drive through our streets and orchards. They expressed pleasure and surprise at the beauty and extent of our settlement, and on taking leave gave promises that they would do all in their power to give us a new station with increased shipping facilities. As their word has always been considered as good as their bond, we are anticipating a depot that will compare favorably with the numerous handsome buildings for which our town is noted.

The digesters of bolled dinners will rejoice to learn that E. Pollard is engaged in setting out 25,000 cabbage plants. His many employés present a decidedly devotional appearance, down on their knees, cinching the festive aphis that thrives on the plant.

No one can even intimate that J. M. Tiernan is "a man without a country," when they consider that he does business in Ramona, receives freight at Shorb's, procures mail in Allambra, and resides in San Gabriel. Under these circumstances he ought to find some place to lay his head, and Jimmy's brain receptacle is considered pretty level by his host of friends.

If that elongated mud puddle on the corner of Maiu street and Garfield avenue could be induced to evaporate, it would confer an undisguised blessing on the lady parrons of the postoffice, as well as on that portion of the sterner sex who are obliged to wash their own carriages.

FRUIT AND GRAZING LANDS

N SAN LUIS OBISPO CO. FOR SALE.

Two thousand acres, eight miles east of "Paso Robles Springs" and seven miles from railroad. About 400 acres is bottom, the balance rolling land. The soil is deep and rich. No irrigation is necessary; the rainfall is sufficient. No better climate in the State; is twenty miles from sea-coast; is free from the cold fogs and bleak winds that prevail near the coast, and is free from the intense heat of the interier valleys. The land is covered with bunch grass, olover and allileria, the most nutritious of all native grasses. The land is especially adapted to fruit growing and grazing, the best two branches of farming in California. The "Huer Huero" creek passes through the center of the land, in which there is running water the year round. There are also two springs of as pure water as can be found, separated about a mile from each other. On the bottom land there is an ever-growing supply of willow trees. Oak trees are in abundance all over the place. At two dollars per cord there is at least $10,600 worth of wood on the land. Price, $15 per acre; $15,000 cash, balance on time,

THE TOPOLOBAMPO CLUB WILL STAY IN CALIFORNIA.

A Co-operative Colony to be Estab-lished in this State-Committee Appointed to Prepare a Definite Plan-A Promising Scheme,

The Topolobampo Club met last evening at the Board of Trade rooms, Raiph E. Hoyt in the chair. There was a large attendance of persons interested in the colonisation schools.

In reply to an inquiry Capt. Brock said that the colony was incorporated under the laws of Colorado.

The chairman said there was still some oubt regarding the manner of voting—an all important question. Had each actual settler one vote or how? He had carefully gone through the constitution of the colony, but had found nothing very definite on the ubject. It was the almost universal opinion subject. It was the almost universal opinion among the celonists that each actual settler only should have one vote. Otherwise there would be no difference between this enterprise and a railroad or other corporation, where the big fish can swallow the little copes.

In reply to an inquiry the secretary said here were 25 members of the Topolobampo tor any further meanings of this cato just as present. A movement to adjourn was carried. He asked Mr. Rice to take the chair and discuss the project of establishing a cooperative colony in Southern California. A motion to this effect was put and carried. On motion, Mr. Ross was appointed secre-

Mr. Hoyt offered the following resolutions:
Resolved, that we believe in the wisdom and utility of cooperation in, business enterprises, and also that it is possible to establish and make successful a cooperative colony in California, which shall prove highly beneficial, pecuniarily and otherwise, to all who become stockholders therein.
Resolved, that this meeting appoint a committee of five, whose duty it shall be to prepare a definite plan for a cooperative colony, and report at their earliest possible day to an adjourned meeting.

Mr. Hoyt said that several gentlemen who felt the utility of cooperation and wished to remain in California, had been in conference for some time past. No choice of a location had yet been made, but several places both in this and Ventura county were in view. One of the first steps would be to incorporate.

The chairman said cooperation had been somewhat of a hobby of his, although he had not had much chance of carrying it into effect. He would not desire to be permanent chairman. He had met Mr. Owen and had a very high opinion of him. He had intended to join the Topolobampo Club, but thought he would change his views or at least wait a little. Had thought for some time that the club should have been located in California. Hoped they would succeed there, but there was plenty of room for one here. Those present were probably well acquainted with Mr. Owen's plans of cooperation. They were good and could be bettered only in one respect. Americans would need a little more liberty than was suggested in Mr. Owen's scheme. If a man had an extra amount of brains or talent he should reap the benefit of it. He believed that a successful plan of cooperation might be earried out in Galifornia. As an instance of the power of cooperation the Orange Grower's Association, of which he was the secretary, had made $250,000 more hast season than they would have done otherwise. Against $15 obtained by others. This makes nearly $100,000 this year for the wine-growers in and around toos and receive the p pians. They had now in view a tract of 6000 acres near Los Angeles and not far from the coast, which could be had today for $7 an acre. The sooner they organized the cheaper they could get land. He would suggest that they adjourn to an early date so that steps can be at once taken for incorporation.

Mr. Hoyt's resolution was then put and manimously carried.

The chairman appointed the following gentlemen as the committee: Ralph E. Hoyt, F. A. Atwater, Afvin D. Brock, George Rice, G. M. Smith.

On motion, Mr. Rice was appointed chairman.

nan.

On motion of Ralph E. Hoyt, Mrs. C. H. Scarborough and Mrs. F. A. Atwater were added to the committee.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned to meet on Friday at 7:30 p.m.

MORE OSTRICHES.

Forty-four Big Birds Landed at Galveston.

The fact that enterprising parties have rented Washington Gardens for an ostrich farm, and gone to Africa for the mammoth birds to stock it, was given publicity in these columns some months ago. The following special telegram to The Times, received yesterday, carries the story a step farther:

Galveston (Tex.), Jan. 25.—[Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles.] Caweston & Hoyle landed 44 ostriches to-day.

HOYLE,

San Diego Sport.

[San Diego Union.]

People who will go hunting Sunday will find game quite pientiful today a little ways out of the city. At the head of the bay there are thousands of duck and brant, with now and then a goose. Pot-hunters are doing their best to kill everything in sight, but they don't seem to succeed, although the game markets are crowded and the "products of the gun" are cheap. Wild geese, however, are worth $2 apiece. In the Santa Margarita cañon geese are plentiful and wild quall are not by any means scare, but being hunted so much has made them wild. They can be found, however, in large quantities, if the hunter will go far enough back for them, in almost any direction. The anglers who used to sit on the wharves and fish at the rate of 60 miles an hour, 20 minutes for refreshments, are not so numerous raformerly. The fish don't seem to bite, although a mun with a good-sized grab-hook stands a chance of getting one or two There are millions on millions of small fish

Bill Nye's Cow.

Bill Nye advertises as follows: Owing to Ill-health I will sell at my residence in town 29, range 18 west, according to government survey, one crushed-raspberry colernment survey, one crushed-raspberry colored cow, aged 6 years. She is a good milk-ster and is not afraid of the cars—or anything else. She is a cow of undaunted courage and gives milk frequently. To a man who does not fear death in any form she would be a great boon. She is very much attached to her home at present, by means of a trace-chain, but she will be sold to any one who will agree to treat her right. She is one-fourth shorthorn and three-fourths hyena. Purchaser need not be identified. I will also throw in a double-barrel shotgun, which goes with her. In May she generally goes away somewhere for a week or two and returns with a tall, red calf with long, wably legs. Her name is Rose, and I would prefer to sell her to a non-resident.

NATORIAL ELECTIONS.

efeat of Van Wyck in Ney such a man as Paddock will y strongly to convince the peohe United States of the necesthe United States of the neces-ta radical change in the methods cting United States Senators. In Vyck's case, notwithstanding the ar sentiment had been clearly and gally indicated in his favor, some ers of the Legislature refused to and by the expressed wish of their tuents, and refused to support Wyck.

The only possible legal remedy for such a breach of trust as this, and such a defeat of the popular will, is to adopt an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, depriving Legislatures of the power of electing Senators and making them dependent for their positions upon the direct vote of the people of the several States.

The idea upon which the constitutional provision for the election of Senators by State Legislatures was founded has lost all actuality. At the time of the adoption of the Constitution a feeling of intercolonial jealousy and disdistrust was eager and intense. The new Republic was an experiment attended with many doubts and fears, and it was thought expedient that the balance of power should be preserved as exactly as possible, at least in the Senate. For this reason it was insisted that each State should be regarded as an entity, separate and distinct from the people of the State, and that while the people should be directly represented in the House of Representatives, the States, as such, should be represented in the Senate. For this reason the number of Senators in each State was made the same, irrespective of population; and to take away the idea of the Senate being in any respect the representative of the people, the selection of Senators was committed to the Legislatures, as the concrete expression of the State.

Of late years, and more especially since the civil war adjusted the real relations of the States to the Union and disposed of much of the fungus growth which had crept over and hidden the true idea of States' rights, it has been seen that the States are the people; that California or Nebraska has no meaning, no existence, no potentiality, if segregated or distinguished from their citizens and residents. In addition to this, the old-time jealousies and distrusts each of the other have very largely died out or worn away, and the more perfect union which the preamble of the Constitution recites as a moving cause to the adoption of that instrument is seen to dependent sover son why such a course should be pted. The election of a Senator by legislature is the fountain head and tree of all that stream of corruption a Legislature is the rountain head and source of all that stream of corruption and bribery which sweeps unchecked through the legislative halls of nearly every State in the Union. The member of the State Senate or Assembly who allows himse if to be improperly influenced, either by money or promises, in the election of a Senator, is like a woman who yields her honor; she may struggle back into the path of virtue, but the odds are largely against her. If a member of the Legislature surrenders his integrity in respect to a Senatorial election he becomes a mark for the attacks of the lobby, and he cannot consistently refuse a bribe a second time, having taken one once. From the first slip his descent is rapid, and he finds plenty to assist in his downfall.

We cannot expect or even hope that such a sweeping reform can be effected this year or next nor may be for ten such a sweeping reform can be effected this year or next, nor may be for ten years. Public sentiment must first be educated to its importance and necessity, but when it is so educated, nothing can prevent the change. It may take numerous other instances of the will of the people being thwarted and their positive instructions disobeyed, but each one will but emphasize the absolute truth of the sentiment that all power is inherent in the people themselves, and that it is far better that the people should select their own servants to do their bidding in both houses of Congress than to delegate the authority to State Legislatures, by whom they are but too often deceived and betrayed.

A Sign of the Times.

Punck.

There hung before a Jewelry Store the Painted Semblance of a Watcb, and underneath there hung a Huge Pen, and they were signs, and it was their Business to indicate to Passers-By that gold watches and gold pens could be found within the door beneath.

One night, after listening to some Laborers talking on the sidewalk, the Big Watch spoke thus to the Big Pen:

"My friend, for years have we been hanging here, and I am thinking it is about time for a Change. Why is it, let me ask, that those miserable little imitations of You and Me inside the window are cared for so tenderly?

They have beds of velvet and coats of softest chamois skin; they are examined and admired by the Ladies; they are polished every morning, and laid away at night to rest, while you and I are left to swing in the Wind. I have borne it long enough. I propose to bring my Grievance into notice. I propose to kick."

And it swung and creaked and bucked and jerked and yanked until the Screws were Loosened and it fell in the street, where a heavily-laden Truck passed over it, and split it into Fragments.

"Well," said the Pen to his neighbor, the Indian, "that is one of the Signs of the Times. He was cut out for exactly the kind of work he was doing, and, had he been content would, no doubt, have lived to a respectable old age; but this Agitation in the Air gave him the Big Head, and he is gone."

"Ugh!" said the Indian, as the Cigar Man wheeled him inside for the night.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The New York World (Dem.) suggests that Connecticut Democrats should place the good of the country above party advantage, and that it would be a bad thing, just for the sake of fomenting a Republican factional fight, to do anything to defeat a man who is so well equipped for the Senatorship by brains, honesty, courage and experience as Gen. Hawley.

The Democratic managers in Indiana are a vacancy is unconstitutional. Inasmuch as the election was ordered by Democrats, the party managers put themselves in a ridiculous attitude when they appeal to the courts to set it aside, simply because a Re-publican was unexpectedly elected.

publican was unexpectedly elected.

The Sydney, New South Wales, Bulletin complains that its open ports have lost it those industries which protection would have saved to it, while the men who were engaged in those industries are idle. It declares that "protection must aid in establishing those men in wealth-producing labor, and thus win back the prosperity which the ruinous free trade has driven forth from the community."

An American Who Was Confined in a Panama Prison.

a Panama Prison.
[New York World.]
Tom Foy a conductor on the Panama railroad was most unjustly sentenced a month since in Colon to eight years imprisonment for shooting a bloodthirsty native passenger. He arrived in this port last Tuesday on the steamer Alene, having made a remarkable escape, attended with great peril and exposure. None of his fellow-passengers, with whom he was on the best of terms, suspected his identity until his feet were safe on United States soil. To a reporter of the World Mr. Foy gave yesterday a full account of his experiences in Panama.

terday a full account of his experiences in Panama.

"I come from California," he said, "and have been in the employ of the railroad company in Panama for two years. You have no idea of the difficulties we conductors have there. Whenever the canal company pays off the trains are packed full of drunken cut-throats and robbers from Chili and Peru, and when you ask 'em for their fares you want to look out you don't get a gun or a bowie-knife. The're great, too, for carrying a machette, which is a knife about three feet long that's used to cut your way through bushes. They're mighty handy with it, and can cut their path as fast as they can walk along. My run was between Panama and Colon.

"In the middle of October last we had a rough gang on board one day and I had to put two men off that drew revolvers on me. In one of the second-class coaches there were a party of about a dozen traveling together. One of them struck at me with his machette, and I jumped back out of his way. Every time I asked for his fare he'd hit at me, and his companions were chattering away unpleasantly behind me. The fellow finally made a rush at me with his machette upraised, and I drew my revolver and shot him through the head. It killed him instantly.

"There was a good deal of talk among his friends the rest of the trip, but I arrived at Colon unharmed and gave myself up to the Prefect. He sent me to jail. It was a building without a roof and no glass in the windows or panels in the doors. I got the fever and was in a bad state. The English-speaking people were very indignant about the matter and the American Consul-General sent for the Yantic because he was afraid we'd have an uprising. Finally the Americans employed on the railroad struck and refused to work till I was placed in better quarters. Then I was transferred. It was October 17th I shot the man and not until November 26th did they give me what they call a trial before an Alcalde and a jury of five. Three of these were Colombians and the remaining two were men, who were licensed to run gambling-houses and other disorderly places.

"The court-room was full of natives during the trial and they cried down my lawyer when he'd try to speak, and made disagreeable remarks about me. The jury went about at will in the audience and talked the case over. They convicted me, and it was the only safe thing, as far as they themselves were concerned, that they could have done. The Judge sentenced me to eightyears' imprisonment on November 30th, and I served two days. I was placed in jail under guard of fifty soldiers, and there were twenty policemen on the outside. I was the only prisoner, but they were naturally afraid that some one might try to rescue me.

"I got extra rations from outside, and a boy used to come in every evening and clean my cell. The guard changed watch at 6 o'clock every night. The second day of my sentence I managed to get a suit of clothes which looked enough like those worn by the boy, and at the changing of the watch I changed my clothes and shaved off my mustache, which was pretty long. Then I picked up my slop pail and walked out as quiet and easy started on a dead run for the Chagres River. I had $100 in my pocket, and I must have got a start of an hour and a half before I was discovered. At the river I stole a boat and started for the ocean, hoping to reach the Yantic, which had arrived about the time I was sentenced. I was in the swamps in the vicinity of Colon for about six days till ments were made to get me out sentenced. I was in the swamps in the vicinity of Colon for about six days till arrangements were made to get me out of the country. You can imagine how secretly everything had to be done when I tell you $10,000 reward had been offered for my capture.

"I left the country in the steamer Alene, of the Atlas line, Capt. Seiders, sailing from Port Limon. In 1865 this same captain picked up John Boyle mo O'Reilly in southern waters, after he had escaped from New Zealand. Mr. O'Reilly, now the well-known editor of the Boston Pilot, was engaged in the Irish-conspiracy of 1864, and after two-years in Kilmainham Jail was transported. There was a reward of £1000 on his head. I sailed under the name of Jackson, and the only thing suspicious about me was the small amount of baggage I carried, it being nothing but a little hand-bag. I never gave myself away once during the passage. We sighted a steamer which some one said was a Pacific mailer. I says, only half to myself, 'I hope we reach New York before she does.' I know I set at least one young fellow to thinking. It went hard with the soldiers who lost me from their custody. Their colonel came down on a special train fram Panama and placed the whole company under arrest. The captain and first lieutenant edown on a special train fram Panama and placed the whole company under arrest. The captain and first lieutenant edown on a special train fram Panama and placed the whole company under arrest. The captain and first lieutenant edown on a special train fram Panama. He visited me at the jail, after I had been locked up two weeks, and said he'd do what he could for me. That was the last I saw or heard from him. The English Consul called on me and said if I was an English subject he'd get me an immediate trial or have me released in his custody. It's a common thing for him to do, and its made my blood turn more than once to find Americans laying claim to English citizenship when they got into trouble. The American Consul is afraid to say anything or do anything that might dis anchored in the harbor. The captain sent for the police and four of them boarded the vessel. They met with opposition and their arms were taken away. A large force was then sent aboard the vessel, and though they met with no resistance they shot and killed four men. Two of these were lying in their bunks in the forecastle. The matter was reported to the Consul-General and there it seemed to stop.

"Another time the captain and mate of an American versel were taking some food to one of their sailors who was locked up. They were ordered away from the jail in Spanish, but not understanding the language, they were not prompt in obeying. The soldiers thereupon beat the men over the head with the stocks of their rifles, injuring them so badly that they were laid up for a long time thereafter, but the Consul never interfered in the matter."

INTERESTING DISCOVERY.

Ancient Christian Inscriptions Found in an Old Mine in Greece.

Ancient Christian Inscriptions Found in an Old Mine in Greece.

[Correspondence London Atheneum.]
A discovery of the highest importance has just taken place at Laurium. In the ancient silver mines, from the possession of which Athens dates her grandeur, the wealth derived therefrom having enabled Themistocles to build her fleet and Perickes to adorn her Acropolis with the genus of architecture and sculpture, many objects have been found belonging to the Grecian workmen, but nothing hitherto denoting the presence of Christians, except a few terra-cotta workmen's lamps having in relief upon them the cross or other Christian symbols. Some members of the French School at Athens, were engaged recently in exploring the narrow galleries near the surface, at a place called Pazzo Anemone, between the two great workings of the French company at Camaresa and Sureza, suddenly came upon some short inscriptions cut in the rock, which, to their great surprise, proved to be undoubtedly of Christian origin. Whether these were records left by the persecuted Christians condemned to these mines by the Romans, as we know they were sent to work in the mines of Sardinia, Egypt and the Caucasus, cannot now, perhaps be ascertained. The extreme difficulty work in the mines of Sardinia, Egypt and the Caucasus, cannot now, perhaps be ascertained. The extreme difficulty of deciphering these inscriptions may be judged by the narrow and almost impassable nature of the galleries of the ancient mines, such as I described them in this locality in a letter to the Atheneum in March of last year. Of these inscriptions five or six year. Of these inscriptions five or six were identified by MM. Diehl and Radel as clearly Christian, very like those found in the Roman Catacombs. Crosses appear frequently upon them, and they consist of Christian phrases or maxims and invocations of God. They will be published shortly with illustrations in the Bulletin de Correspondence Hellenique.
